

DARTINGTON PLAYGOERS ON TOUR

June 25th - July 5th 2022

Follow the amazing adventures of the mighty Brutus as he follows a prophesy by the Goddess Diana. Discover how he faces the many challenges on his journey and why he ends up in Totnes!

This tongue in cheek version of the Brutus myth is told through comedy and physical theatre and is guaranteed to entertain all the family

The Ensemble: Jules Harper, Sue Mason, Michael Sells, Alun Sherwood, Dave Waistnidge and Robin Willoughby.

Devised by the cast and written and directed by RICHARD CLARK

Stage Manager: Rachel Scholefield

June 30th Broadhempston Community Orchard

If wet in Broadhempston Village hall

July 1st The Hunters Lodge Inn, Cornworthy

July 4th Staverton Playing Field

If wet in Staverton Church

July 5th The Pack Horse Inn, South Brent

ALL PERFORMANCES start at 7.30 pm

No tickets! - put something in the hat at the end

The Scenes:

The birth of Brutus

Pandrasus, The King of Greece

Kefkada and the Goddess Diana

The Sirens and Corineus

Goffaries the King of the Gauls

Totnes and the Giants

BRING A CHAIR OR A RUG TO SIT ON!

